Meldon Law Mystery Contest Winners

In our May 2017 issue we had a contest to see if you could figure out what was missing between two almost identical photos of our conference room and also to see if you could unscramble a certain phrase. We had an incredible response from this contest, sending out around 60 Harry's gift cards! Featured below is a letter sent to us from a wonderful couple who used their gift card to celebrate their 62nd wedding anniversary! We appreciate everyone who participated in our contest, and we hope you will stay tuned for more exciting contests in the future.

Dear Jeffrey Meldon,

Some time ago I entered your 'Meldon Mystery of the Month' contest and won! You sent me a $25 gift card for Harry's in downtown Ocala. Today was my husband's and my 62nd wedding anniversary! We waited until today to use the gift card and to send you a thank you! We thoroughly enjoyed our dinner there today! It was a first visit to Harry's for us and we were delighted with the nice staff, the food was superb, and our day most pleasant! I want to thank you for making our anniversary a very special day! My husband will be 90 on Aug. 7 and I just turned 80, but we are in VERY good health, and get around as much as the younger folk. It was fun to go out and do something special. We raised 7 children and could never really afford to do this for a long time! Now our family number is 65! We are SO blessed, and you just added one more blessing to our pile! Thank you so much! I really enjoy the little bulletins you send in the mail. I guess I am glad we do not need a lawyer, but if we ever should, we'd surely call on you. I hear you on WSKY every day, too! Thank you again,

God Bless.

Orange Strawberry Sunrise Popsicles

Ingredients:

- 2 cups freshly squeezed orange juice (3-4 oranges)
- 1 cup strawberries, fresh or frozen
- 3/4 cup water
- 2 tbsp. syrup
- You can purchase popsicle molds from Target, Walmart, etc.

Instructions:

1. Start by juicing the oranges using a citrus juicer, pour the juice into a jug and set aside.
2. Add the strawberries, water, and maple syrup into a high-speed blender and blend on high until smooth.
3. First, pour the orange juice evenly into each popsicle mold (about 1/2-3/4 full). Then, using a spoon, add the strawberry mixture into each mold.
4. You can carefully move the strawberry mixture around a little in the molds with a spoon so that the popsicles have more of a gradient look.
5. Place into the freezer and freezer for at least 1 hours before inserting the popsicle sticks into each mold to help them stay straight.
6. Freeze for at least 12 hours.
7. To take them out, run hot water over the molds briefly and they should be easy to pull out.
8. Store in the freezer in small Ziploc plastic bags.

Each month our staff takes a number of calls from people within the North Central Florida Community. We use our clients' comments to come up with ideas for the topics of interest. Here's a topic worth discussing.

Gators Win Baseball National Championship

On a warm Tuesday night in Omaha, Nebraska, the college baseball capital of the world, the stakes were set with record attendance to see if the Florida Gators (1 game up in the series) could finish off LSU and win their first national championship. LSU had put up strong offensive stats all season which contributed to their success in the postseason; however, an elite pitching rotation allowed the Gators to keep the score low and create opportunities for big offensive plays. Florida (52-19) decided to go with Freshman pitcher Tyler Dawson, who pitched a strong five innings, setting up teammates JJ Scharwtz and Deacon Lipit to lead an offensive attack that led to six total runs scored (final score 6-1) and a national championship trophy for the Gators. to have won national championships in "the big three", football, basketball, and baseball, joining UCLA, Ohio State, and Michigan. The Gators had been runner-ups in 2005 and 2011 and the pressure was on this year for Head Coach Kevin O'Sullivan who stayed cool and used his team's defensive strengths to shut down LSU's high ranking offensive. As a local Gainesville resident, there is something special about being able to witness history in your own neighborhood. The team, coaching staff, alumni and fans all gathered at the Alfred A. McKethan Stadium to celebrate their homecoming and a well deserved victory.
