WELCOME COACH BILLY NAPIER!

Carey and Jeffrey were excited to get a private tour of the new Heavener Training Facility at the University of Florida the week before the Florida-Utah opening football game on September 3, 2022. The training facility has a full-time “training table” so that all of the UF athletes, no matter what sport they play, can eat delicious healthy food and hang out together in one of the most amazing buildings ever built at UF. After our tour, we got to meet the new head ball coach Billy Napier who welcomed the Meldon’s into his office and shared some meaningful conversation regarding his move to Gainesville. Carey and Jeffrey assured coach Napier that Meldon Law was there 100% to help the Gators regain their spot as the top football program in the country. We believe in Billy Napier’s ability to lead the Gators into a new era of championship football at UF.

INTRODUCING OUR MELDON LAW SCHOLAR ATHLETE PROGRAM.

Established in 1997, the program has awarded over 600 scholarships to high school seniors across North Florida. Nominated by members of their community, these students demonstrate academic rigor and athletic excellence. All nominees must have a minimum GPA of 3.0, and all recipients have proven to be both exceptional students and athletes.

The program has grown substantially since its inception 25 years ago. What started as a segment on the Larry Vettel radio show announcing two scholars per month has transitioned to a weekly production on TV 20. Every Wednesday during the school year, a Meldon Law Scholar-Athlete is featured on the 6 o'clock and 11 o'clock news.

Starting next month, we will be featuring our 2022-2023 Scholar Athlete winners in this section of the newsletter.

REVIEW OF THE MONTH

I have never in my life dealt with such professional individuals. My case manager was Jamie Adkinson, and he made me feel nothing less than safe and secure the entire process. This was a fast and easy experience, and it was all due to the help of the team at Meldon Law.
